CANADIAN FOREST FIRES.

LARGE LOSSES IN THE SOUTHERN PART OF THE DOMINION.

The Fire Arens Are Near the Houndary Line In Southeast Manitohn and Herween Mont-real and Ottawa, South of the Ottawa River Many Lives Lost-Fires Einewhere.

DULUTH, Minn., Oct. 7.—Reports received here from the Canadian border where the forest and prairie fires have been raging say that the ies are spreading and that there is great danger of their reaching the thickly populated settlements. So far ten persons have lost their lives. Thousands of dollars' worth of timber has been destroyed, and many persons have lost their homes and crops. Settlers have been fighting the flames night and day for over a week. The swarth line between the United States and Manitoba has been completely obliterated. Strendous efforts are being made to prevent the fire from getting a start on the American side of the line, but grave fears are entertained. Near White Mouth a trapper by the name of Laundry was burned to death. A German woman living in a small house near where the fire was most furious yesterday is reported to have been burned to death and the children are missing.

A despatch from Whitehouse says: "The fire is spreading rapidly. A Mr. Jorgenson lost a new house and stable and several settlers had close calls for their lives. A heavy wind struck here this morning, and shortly after noon was in darkuess because of the dense smoke.

At Beausejor, Manitoba, seven persons were burned to death, and at Morris, Manitoba, one family of four persons is known to have perished. Several bodies have been recovered near South Indian. Three villages, recovered near South Indian. Three villages, South Indian, Casselman, and Cheney, are known to have been swept away by fires. Details are meagre and hard to obtain.

Casselman, Ontario, Oct. 7.—A quarter of a million of money is the estimate put upon the loss by fire in and about this place, South Indian, and Cheney by the forest irres of Tuesday. Upward of 1,000 persons have been rendered homeless and most of them penniless as well. The charred remains of five persons who periabed in the flames have been recovered, and it is feared that others who are missing have also been burned to death. One woman died from exposure yesterday, after giving birth to an infant girl.

The names of the dead are: Mrs. Cunningm of Casselman, 35 years of age; Mrs. Frank veille, widow, a resident of South Indian;
o children of Mrs. Leveille, aged 8 months
d 12 years respectively; Miss Stiles, aged h, a sister of Mrs. Levelle; Mrs. Lacroix of and 12 years respectively; Miss Stiles, aged 30, a sister of Mrs. Levellle; Mrs. Lacroix of Casselman.

The missing who are feared to have been lost are Miss Julia Lautin, aged 55, house-keeper for the parish priest at Casselman, and Mrs. Desorais, who lived in the Hig Guily on the Casselman road. Many are seriously burned. The fire district begins east of Eastman's station on the Canada Atlantic and extends east of Casselman, a distance of lifteen miles. It also extends southwest almost to the Ottawa River, along the Rockland branch of the Canada Atlantic road. Over all this district, besides the three villages burned, scores of farmbouses have been wiped out and animals are lying about everywhere, and the fields and charred trees help to make up the desolate picture. The suffering people are being taken to Ottawa and cared for in the few farmhouses yet remaining.

Survivors say it was a tornado of flame, and a few hours sufficed to work the havoc that has been done. No one who passed through the fire seems able to describe its swift work of destruction. It rushed upon the farmers from the woods and in a few minutes all was in ruins. In the villages the flames leaped from one house to another. The fire sped through the forest, and only blackened stumps remain to mark its course. Food is much needed by the homeless people, who to-day are suffering much from the searching cold wind that prevails. Such an experience is unparalleled in this section, and the maxnitude of the loss has rendered the people almost crazed over the misfortunes that have befallen them.

Indianapholis, Ind., Oct. 7.—Forest fires are so numerous here that almost the entire State is panting under a cloud of smoke.

CLEVELAND, O., Oct. 7.—This city is overclouded by smoke from the burning forests of Ohio and Michigan, and navigation from this port is impeded. Several vessels have come near colliding with the pler while entering this port or have anchored outside the breakwater, waiting for the smoke to clear away.

RICHMOND, Va., Oct. 7.-The Dismal Swamp has been on fire for more than a week. Large quantities of undergrowth and shrubbery killed by the frost have been slowly burning and the smoke has become almost unbearable. The Norfolk and Western trains going through that region have to close their windows to keep the dense smoke from filling the oars. Many deer, bears, and foxes, raccoons, onessums, squirrels, rabbits, and other game have been seen running out of the thickets and underbrush to escape the smoke.

CHORUS GIRL'S SECRET MARRIAGE A Member of the Knickerbocker Burleague

2102 Lexington avenue, New York, arrived here yesterday in a highly excited state of mind to run down a story that had reached her about her daughter's marriage. The daughter is a pretty chorus girl, who has not yet reached her eighteenth birthday, and is with the Knickerbocker Burlesque Company, now playing an engagement at the Grand Opera House here. She is known on the bills as Ella Ray, and has been seen at Hammerstein's and Wallack's in New York. This is her first season of travel on the road. While spending her vacation two years ago with an aunt near Marasquan. N. J., Ella met William Pierce, a farmer's son, and they fell violently in love, but, having no money, wisely concluded to postpone marriage. Last week the company was playing in firoklyn, and the young farmer could not resist the temptation to go over and see his sweetheart. The result was that a clandestine marriage was arranged, both agreeing to keep it secret until there should be a better turn in affairs. When her mother arrived here and charged her with having been married the confessed. She says she intends to make a good wife to William, who is on the farm now, but expects to branch out for himself. She says he intends to be a painter, and when he gets a start she will leave the stage. William is 19 years old. York. This is her first season of travel on the be a painter, and when he gets a start s leave the stage. William is 19 years old.

Mrs. Hannah Robinson of 621 West Fortysixth street, this city, who is suing her husband, John Robinson, for divorce on the ground of cruelty, has gone to live with her father at 45 Bleecker street, Jersey City, pending the determination of the suit. Robinson went over there on Wednesday to try to effect a reconcilia-tion. The interview closed with Mrs. Robinson feeing from one room to another screaming and her husband pursuing her, brandishing an axe and threatening to brain her. Mrs. Robinson's relatives disarmed her husband and handed him over to the police. Robinson said he did not mean to harm his wife. He was arraigned in the Second Criminal Court, yesterday morning and remanded for examination.

LILLARD WANTS AN ACCOUNTING Me Desires to Knew How the Oil, Paint and

The minority of the stockholders of the Druggist's Circular and the Oil, Paint, and Drug Publishing Company, two New Jersey corpora tions with practically the same stockholders at meetings held at Englewood on Wednesday introduced resolutions demanding an accounting. The resolutions were voted down. They were offered for technical purposes. The two corporations are owned mainly by the Oil. Paint and Drug Company of West Virginia, which is capitalized at $750,000. One-third of that stock is owned by Benjamin Lillard, wholesale druggist, of 108 Fulton street. He was formerly, he said vesterday. President and Treasurer of both corporations, at a salary of $5,000 a year, and in his time the corporations were dividing altogether $30,000 a year among the stockholders. He went to Europe two years ago, and in his absence, he said, William O. Allison was elected President and Treasurer in his place, at a salary of $18,000 a year. At present the company is paying practically no dividends, Mr. Lillard said, and the tically no dividends, Mr. Lillard said, and the officers refuse to explain why. At the meeting on Wednesday night Mr. Lillard and his counsel, L. H. Andrews of 38 Park row, who held one proxy, introduced the resolutions demanding an accounting. The majority, President Allison of Englewood, Lewis K. Bell of New York, the Vice-President and Secretary, and a Mr. Brigham, who held two proxies, voted them down. Suit for an accounting has been commenced in the United States Court of West Virginia by Lillard and Andrews.

SHINER SIMPSON CERTIFICATED.

Questioned When He Was Bounced.

The Hon, Shiner Simpson has received a cer tificate of character from Mayor Strong. Six months ago Shiner, who was then Superinten-dent of Streets and Roads in the Department of Public Works, was removed by Gen. Collis, and although the specific reason was never made public, it was understood that his removal was the result of irregularities in the conduct of his office. The Hon, Shine; allowed the stirms to rest on his character for several months, and then he determined to look for a vindication.

then he determined to look for a vindication. He appealed to Mayor Strong, and the result was that on Wednesday his Honor summoned Deputy Commissioner Wilds, the Hon. Shiner, and a stenographer. The confab which followed lasted for more than an hour, and when it was over the Mayor said he was satisfied that Mr. Simpson had discharged the duties of his office in an honest manner.

"The charge on which he was removed," said the Mayor, "was that he had failed to verify his pay rolls personally and that, through his negligence, several teamsters were able to cheat the city. Mr. Simpson merely took the word of his subordinates, who certified that the pay rolls were all right. It would have been impossible for him to do the work himself; therefore he had to trust somebody. I don't think there was the slightest ground for any criticism of Mr. Simpson's personal honesty."

PRACTICED MEDICINE ILLEGALTY iarliff, a Bruggist, Prosecuted by the Kings

County Medical Society. Herman A. Garliff, a druggist, of 404 Central evenue, Williamsburg, was arraigned in the Lee Avenue Police Court yesterday on the harge of without a diploma, Dr. David Myerle, the Secretary of the Kings County Medical Society, averred that in February last Garliff was recommended as a physician to Mrs. Cornelia Hoeven of 235 East Twenty-fifth atreet, this city, who had an ailment of the eyes. Garliff told her, it is alleged, that her eyes were afflicted with blood poisoning. He irescribed nills and liquid medicine. Mrs. Hoeven took both and, it is said became blind, and remained so for more than six weeks. A physician was consulted, who pronounced her condition bad and said it would require at least two years' attention before her health would be fully restored. The attention of the Kings County Medical Society was called to Garliff two weeks ago, and Dr. Myerle obtained from Mrs. Hoeven an affloavit of the druggist's treatment, upon which a warrant was issued. When Garliff was arrested at his home late on Wednesday night he said that Mrs. Hoeven tried to blackmail him. He had nothing to say when he was arraigned yesterishy before Justice Twenty-fifth street this city, who had an ail

WANTTHEODORE COCHEU PUNISHED

More Legal Squabbling Over the Affairs of the M. P. Church of William

Application was made to Justice Gaynor in the Supreme Court in Brooklyn yesterday to punish Theodore Cochen, formerly a trustee of the Methodist Protestant Church of Williamsburg, for contempt of court. Mr. Cochen on June 24 was directed by the Court to turn over all books and papers belonging to the church corporation to the new trustees. Counsel for Mr. Cocheu said that his client did not have any books and papers belonging to the corporation. "What they want, he said, "are the books and records of the Union Cemetery." Mr. Cocheu is superintendent of the ceinetery and has a contract which does not expire until 1900, entilling him to 10 per cent, of the receipts. The Legislature gave to the cemetery authorities permission to remove all the bodies and to sell the property. The cemetery will be divided into 170 building lots, worth about $1,000 each. Mr. Cocheu, it is said, under the contract, will be entitled to 10 per cent, of this, besides receiving from $3 to $5 for the removal of each body. The church officials contend that the cemetery is part of their corporation, but this Mr. Cocheu denies. The fee of the property is in the name of the church, counsel said, but they were, nevertheless, separate corporations. Decision was reserved. all books and papers belonging to the church
